Mr. Scales asked if these bonds were not a part of the valid indebtedness of the State, and if this bill was repealed would it not cast a stigma upon the bonds and render them less marketable? Robins said that he had not conceded that the bonds were valid, apart of the valid indebtedness and in all events the repeal of the bill would be of no effect.

Legislative Summary.

In the lower House of the General Asembly yesterday the proceedings were renerally of an unimportant character. A resolution of inquiry relative to the impeachment of J. C. L. Harris, solicitor of this judicial district, was introduced. The House is working with such expedition as to keep the calendar clear.

The Senate occupied the day in discussing a bill to repeal chapter 245, laws of 1874-'75, known in legislative parlance as House bill 422, alias the bondswapping bill.

A Model Officer.

The following is "a true copy" of process served upon a citizen of Panther Branch township some time ago. The original is on file at this office, and the chirography should be seen to make the ridiculousness of the document fully appreciated:

Nov. 25th, 1876.

Brooks, one of the mos opular insurance agents in the State, has accepted the general agency for Western North Carolina to look after the business of the Penn Life Insurance Company of Pailadelph'a with headquarters at State ville. This is one of the best and most liberal companies we know of, and we feel no hesitancy in recommending both the compa_ ny and its general agent. His Excellency, the Governor, on yesterday issued his pardon to Reuben Wilking of Beaufort county, who has been confined in the penitentiary since August, 1875. This man was convicted of murder and sentenced to be hanged, but his sentence was commuted by Gov. Brogden to two years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

The circumstances under which this killing took place were such as to cause

all right-thinking men to applaud the slayer. A man by the name of Scott had seduced the wife of Wilkinson, and not only so, but had gone to his house in his absence, took the man's wife away to his own home, and not content with this had loaded on a wagon such ticles of the household furniture as he way to the house of Scott they met Wilkinson in the road. Scott very coolly explained the situation to him and was about to drive on when Wilkinson stapped him to say to his wife, that if she would leave he wanted her to go in as good dress as she came to him when they were first married. He remarked further that he believed that her clother were as good as those she had on when they were first married, except perhaps her shoes, and he thereupon wrote her an order for a new pair of shoes. They then parted, Wilkinson going one way and his wife going another with Scott. Later in the day the two men met at a little grocery store in the neighborhood. Quite a crowd was there. Scott twitted Wilkinson for allowing him to take his wife from him. Wilkinson bore it for some time, but finally, goaded to desperation by the insults which were being added to the injuries which had already been heaped upon him, he seized the bar which went across and fastened the door and dealt Scott a blow across the head which killed him instantly. These are the facts in the case. Who shall say that it was not a case fit for the exercise of executive clemency?

Death of a Famous Character.

Maj. J. W. Wilson, the excellent nember of the House from Burke, has just received intelligence of the death of Thos. Mazyck, an ancient citizen of the ancient town-Morganton. Mazyck was a character. Everybody who has ever at any time within the past century been to Morganton knew Mazyck. Indeed, in Western was to have argued one's self unknown. He claimed to have been born in Portugal, and said that he left that country in the reign of Ferdinand and Isabella. Came to America with Marquis LaFayette, whom he accompanied as body servant, and served during all of the Mexican war. His story may be true: he looked as if he might have belonged to any nationality, and might have been of any age over 125. At a period to which the memory of the oldest inhabitant runneth not back, he went to Morganton, and for generations past has been shaving and dispensing fire-water to the citizens thereof. He told many curious stories of his own exploits, and his many "hairbreadth 'scapes i' the imminent deadly breach" and was at once the pride and the curiosity of the village. Every town has at least one "character," and Mazyck was the charecter of Morgan-

He has gone now, poor old fellow, and his death uashes about one hundred indictments in Burke court for selling liquor "by the small." The boys are wearing crape for the space of 30 days, and Morganton covers herself with sackcloth and utters loud lamentations.

Died of His Injuries.

We learn that Robert Harris, who was shot by Cornelius Litaker in Rowan county last Thursday, which circumstance was mentioned in the NEWS of Sunday, died Saturday evening about 5 o'clock. Harris was a prominent citizen and his untimely death is deeply regretted. He leaves a large family. The murderer is still at large and is supposed to have fled, probably, to Wilkes county. He is a young man only about 25 years of age, about 6 feet in height. light hair, blue eyes, little or no beard, has a decided lean-forward in standing or walking, and rather a furtive express-

The Week of Prayer for 1877.

The first of the Union Prayer meetings was held last night at the Presbyterian Church, and was conducted by Rev. Dr. Vaughan, the pastor. The services were opened by the singing of the old and familiar hymn "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing," and reading portions of the 18th chapter of Luke. The pastor delivered an earnest and intructive address on the necessity and nature of prevailing prayer. The meeting was an unusually large one, considering the very inclement night, the house being well filled with ladies and gentlemen, representing the several churches of the city. The following gentlemen took part in the meeting, delivering address or leading in prayer: Rev. Dr. Pritchard, J. C. Scarborough, Esq., E. R. Stamps, Esq., Rev. J. K. Howell, Prof. W. C. Kerr and Rev. Robert Burwell. The meeting to-night will be held at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, and it is earnestly hoped that all who can will attend and take part in this delightful service. The subject for to-night is: Prayer for the universal church; for its increase of faith, activity, holiness and christian charity. In the address to the people, appointing this week of prayer the Evangelical Alliance says:

The times and seasons are causing deep anxiety among devout and thoughtful believers. Society is stirred with impulses and activities, the evil tenden-cies of which cannot be doubted. Heathen and anti-Christian systems are waking up to the dangers with which the spread of the Gospel is threatening them; wars and rumors of wars are rife among the nations; and whilst the advo cates of open infidelity on the one hand, and of superstitious belief on the other. are putting forth fresh activities, the true soldiers of the Cross are called upon to maintain their spiritural warfare with closer union, with greater diligence, with more constant watchful-ness, with more brotherly love, and with more fervent and united prayer. The Lord reigneth! This is both the ground of our rejoicing and the strength of our hope.

A Year of Momentous Political Events.

Prospectus of the Raleigh News.

Momentous events are thronging to the front. Two political parties of the country are marshaling their intellectual forces for the constitutional battle, on which hangs the fate of the government or the ensuing four years, perhaps for all the time. From now until the 4th of March the republic will be the theatre of a drama more thrilling in interest than any before enacted in America, to be followed, in all probability, by a period of the profoundest concern to all our people Some predict a terrible clash of arms, but whether or not war results from the turbulent condition of the public mind, it is certain that the year 1877 will see thick crowding occurrences of great moment.

Of these events and circumstances the News will be a watchful, faitnful chronicler. Its news will be the freshest and fullest that competent and experienced journalists can obtain on whatever field the same is to be collected.

The NEWS will endeavor, in its editorial course, to uphold the constitution and the laws guaranteeing a truly republican form of government. It will counsel moderation in the treatment of gelence amestions but firmness in the ouly foundation of enduring peace. The News is the authorized organ of the Democratic party. In all its departments-News and Correspondence, Political, Commercial Financial, Agricultural, Local, Miscellaneous, &c., the NEWS will at least sustain the character it has so long held, and which has been acknowledged in thousands of commendations from the press, and from the reading public.

Terms--In Advance. THE DAILY NEWS, published every morning, except Monday, will be furnished at the following rates:

A RESOLUTION of inquiry into the official conduct of Solicitor Harris was introduced into the House yesterday.

On Saturday several companies of United States soldiers left Alabama and Georgia for Indian 1. The Democratic Convention of Indiana met yesterday.

A CART LOAD of telegrams were des_ troyed in Washington a few days ago. This wholesale destruction of originals looks a little suspicious, in the face of the proposed investigations into the telegraphic correspondence relating to the recent elections.

The results of the investigation so far in Louisiana, is favorable to the Democrats. The evidences of illegal action by the Returning Board in arbitraily changing the vote in different parishes and in otherwise violating the law, are so complete and far reaching that the report of the committee now there, it is said, will be much stronger even than that of the House committee which un did the work of the Board in 1874 and condemned its actions as illegal and fraudulent. In many of the parishes visited by the sub-committees numbers of negroes, voluntarily, and sometimes in a bodycame forward to testify that they voted the Democratic ticket, and gave as reassons for doing so their reconciliation to the native whites, a general revival of good feeling, weariness of the misgovernment and robbery of the Republican rulers, which affected them in the mismanagement of schools and in tax ation, which lowered the wages of laborers and burdened those of them who own property. The report of the committee is anxiously awaited by both parties, as it will probably decide the controversy.

THE INDIANA CONVENTION.

Yesterday, in accordance with the call of the State Democratic committee of Indiana, a general convention was held at Indianapolis to consider the pending crisis. Stirring resolutions were adopted and patriotic speeches delivered, demanding that the electoral controversy be settled according to the law and the constitution. It is hoped that this emphatic expression of public opinion in the Hoosier State may have decided effect at Washington; that it may, in connection with other similar expressions, bring about a peaceful and perfectly fair solution of the Presidential difficulty.

We fear the hope is a slender one. If the Republicans are disposed to regard the voice of the people with that reverence to which it is entitled, there would never have been raised a question as to Mr. Tilden's election; for what can better indicate the will of the people than their ballots? The Democrats have a majority in the electoral college and they have a clear majority of near a half million on the popular vote. The Republicans deliberately scheme to defeat their will-to ignore their fairly won majorities, and rob them of the fruits of their victory. What care the conspirators for the voice of the Democrats of Indiana? or for public opinion in any quarter of the union? Is not the Republican party a party of force as well as fraud? Have they any single governing principle, at this day, but this, to accomplish their purposes peaceably if they can, forcibly if they must?

To realize this truth, we have but to recall the facts that in South Carolina a Legislature was organized at the point of the bayonet; and that more than once in Louisiana the government of the people has been overthrown by military power. Wherever it has been necessary, since 1860, for the Republicans to resort to force to carcarry out their purposes, either State or National, they have not hesitated to exercise it, throwing the constitution to the winds and trampling on the civil law; and their despotic measures have always been undertaken in opposition to the well-known will of the people, and in defiance of public opin

The Administration was loudly condemned by men of both parties for its despotism in Louisiana in 1874; yet, the Administration deliberately and maliciously does the very same thing again in 1877-for even while we write the legally elected Legislature of Louisiana is kept away from the capitol by soldiers; and in South Carolina Grant is propping up an illegal and tyannical government with his bayonets though be well knows that the people ondemn such a use of the Army.

It has been said that the surest guide is a pretty theory that rulers respect the voice of the people in Republican governments; it is a pleasing hope that President Grant and his co-conspirators will halt when they hear the stern utterances of sovereign States demanding an honest and constitutional count: but the practice of the Republican leaders has been to override law and disregard the will of the people. Looking into the future, then, with our lamp of experience, we see no hope in public opinion, resolutions of conventions, memorials of merchants, and the like, operating to arrest the progress of the Repubican conspiracy; and for the effect which it will have upon Grant, Chandler, Morton and others who hold the peace of the country in their hands, the Indiana convention may as well have never as-

Our hope lies generally in the moderation and prudence of Congress; but particularly in the votes of those few Republican Senators, who, like Mr. Conkling, are disposed to act in the dicisive hour, from their own innate convictions of right, and in obedience to the constitution of the United States. At the same time it is well enough for public opinion to find expression in resolutions of conventions, memorials to Congress, and in other emphatic ways.

VIEWS OF SENATOR BAYARD. The temper of both parties at Washington, it is said, is improving, in spite of the efforts of a few unscrupulous politicians to irritate and inflame partisan suspicion and dislike. The conviction gains ground that the constitution and laws are sufficient to cover and solve all the present difficulties, and that there is no excuse for violence or for illegal or doubtful constitutional proceedings on either side; that the Presidency is not to be scrambled for, and that neither party can afford to succeed by trickery or by measures or acts of doubtful constitutionality. Senator Bayard was asked several days ago what he thought of a plan of action understood to be suggested and favored in certain quarters, but which has found no favor in Washington among the Democrats, which proposes that, in case of the inauguration of Mr. Hayes, the House should stop the supplies for the incoming administration, Mr. Bayard replied:—

To do anything to hamper the incoming administration by refusing in advance appropriations is an act of revolution and almost certainly of war. We cannot in this country live in a state of semi-revolution. We should drift into civil war. In fact the scheme proposed would be war. In my opinion the constitution and laws afford every requisite remedy for grievances. Unlawful steps on one side, if such are taken, must not be met by unlawful steps on the other. If you make such a suggestion or advocate such a policy men will cease to reason on both sides. We suffer to day as we have in the past, not so much from intended wrong as from mutual misunderstanding of motive and intent. We must not permit the public mind to be blinded by strife and confusion. We need, of all things, serenity in order to see things as they are. If Mr. Hayes is inaugurated under the sanction of law there should be no suggestion of violent resistance. I do not believe that he will be inaugurated in violation of the forms of law. I think I see already a better spirit prevailing. I believe that there are moderate and ard replied :-

patriotic men enough in the two Houses of Congress, on both sides, to get together and settle this question honorably and justly. I believe some one Fas been elected, and, if there is doubt who has been cheen, the constitution contains clear and ample means for solving it. If on the l4th of February it does not appear that an election by the several colleges of electors has been accomplished, the provisions for an immediate election are supplied in clear terms by the same charter of powers. When this result is made known the people will demand and the honorable men of both sides in Congress will see to it that the person lawfully entitled is inaugurated, and no violence will be needed and none will be tolerated.

GLINES' SLATE ROOFING PAINT AND CEMENT. FIRE-PROOF. Contains no Tar.

STOPS ALL LEAKS.

AGENTS WANTED IN EVERY TOWN. A roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this state be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better, and lasting much longer than new shingles without the slate, for one-third the cost of reshingling. This Paint is practically fire-proof against sparks or flying embers, and for tin and iron has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold and will not corrode in the most exposed places. Roofs covered with Tar Sheathing Felt can be made water tight at a small expense. The State Paint is EXTREMELY CHEAP! Two to three gallons will cover 100 square feet of shingle roof, or 400 to 600 square feet of tin, iron, felt, matched-boards, or any smooth surface; although the Paint has a heavy body it is easily applied with a brush, and neither cracks in winter, nor runs in summer.

On decayed shingles it fills up the holes and pores, and gives a new substantial roof that lasts 10 years. Curled or warped shingles it brings to their places, and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in Felt roofs, stops the leaks and although a slow dryer, rain will not effect it a few hours after appling. As nearly all raints that are black contain tar, be sure you obtain our genuine article which (for shingle roofs) is chocolate color, when first applied, changes in about a month to a uniform slate color, and is to all intents and purposes slate.

ON TIN OR IRON ROOFS our red color is usually preferred, one coat being equal to five of any ordinary Paint. Estimates promptly furnished. For brick walls our bright red is the only reliable state a pint ever introduced that will effectually prevent dampness from penetrating and discoloring the FIRE-PROOF NEW ROOFS.

Mills, four tries, factories and dwellings a specialty. Materials complete for a new steep flat Roof of Rubber cooling costs but about half the price of reshingling. For private houses, barks and buildings of all descriptions it is far superior to any other roofing in the world for convenience in laying, and combines the ornamental appearance, durability, and fire-proof qualities of tin, at one-third the cost.

Test in the world! Costs half the price of white lead, lasts longer, covers more, looks better, practically tested 20 years, and has proved far superior to ordinary paints every time. The paint is ready for use in all known saades, can be applied by any one with perfect success, on either inside or outside work, floors, walls, fences, &c.; warranted elastic, water-proof and not to peel, chalk off or crack; dries quickly on any surface, forming a smooth, firm, elastic, and beautiful paint. Sample card of colors and estimates free. PAINT. Manufacturers of Slate and Marble.

NO TAR OR GRAVEL USED.

THE SOUTHERN STATE DEBIS A Committee of Northern Bankers to Undertake their Reorganization.

N. Y. Herald, Jan. 4.1 There was a meeting of the holders of Carolina bonds yesterday, at 11 at the assembly room of the New Clearing House. Fied Taylor, of Butterfield & Co., presided. The ing was called by Messrs. August ont & Co., Fred, Butterfield & Co., omas Denny & Co., and W. H. Hays, large holders of the special-tax nds of North Carolina. Mr. Taylor dd that his firm held $1,250,000 of al-tax bonds, but none of those ich the State recognizes. Thomas Denny & Co. are said to own and repabout $1,000,000, August Belmont about $300,000, other gentlemen $2,000 up to $120,000. These genmen do not own any of the recognized is, but the smaller holders generally both classes. The object of this vement is to have five bank Presisact as arbitrators between the polders and the State. Their names o. S. Coe, American Exchange; b D. Vermilye, Merchants' Nation B. Sherman, Mechanics' National h Pratt. National Farmers and mers', of Baltimore, and Mr. B. B. emegys, Vice-President, Philadelphia ational, of Philadelphia, and Messrs. Sherman and Vermilve formally med the trust. The movement con lates the surrender by the holders e various bonds of all their rights e arbitrators., the bondholders to and by their action in the premis-The principal speech on the part of lew committee was that of Mr. Coe. He said that he and the rest of the comttee were invited a short time ago to net a gentleman who was prominent the centennial exhibition. He spoke them of the possibility of an arrangement by which all the Southern States lebts could be reorganized-an idea mite in harmony with the purpose of the present meeting. He portrayed the importance of the movement, and night that a committee of five prominent men not interested in Southern Is should be selected by the two inrests in unison. This had been done nearly as possible. The committee ote to the gentleman who instigated the movement that as the committee to be an impartial judiciary to settle the equities of the case, some members should be bank officers of New York. Therewere made ne banker from Baltimore and one from Philadelphia. It was thought best at first to comme the efforts to reorganthe debts of the nearest States-Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee The gentleman who initiated this movement had gone on a mission to the officials of those States, to learn whether these proposed overtures would be cordially received. This movement must be a matter of gradual growth. If it were generally concluded that it offered a easible plan of adjusting this important

Radical Republicans, Fearing for Lolusiana, Turning their Attention to Mississippi--Paving the Way for Throwing Out the Vote of the State WASHINGTON, Jan. 2, '76.

The radical republicans are preparing for the possibility of their being driven from possession of the Louisiana election vote by throwing up intrenchments in the the case of Mississippi. They broke ground to-day by sending the United States Marshal of the Southern District of Mississippi, Mr. J. I. Lake, to the Attorney General with a report of the condition of political affairs in the latter State. Marshal Lake reported that a large number of indictments (over sixty) were found by the Grand Jury at the November term of the court recently closed, and that almost all the accused parties had already been arrested and placed under bonds in the sum of $2,000 each conditioned for their appearance to answer. Many others would, it appears, have doubtless been indicted for the same offenses had not the term of the court been limited as to time. The indictments found are based upon section No. 5,820 of the Revised Statutes, which provides:

"If two or more persons in any State or Territory conspire to prevent by force, intimidation or threat any citizen who is lawfully entitled to vote from giving his support or advocacy, in a legal manner, toward or in favor of the election or any lawfully qualified person as an elector for President or Vice Presdent or as a member of Congress of the United States, they shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500 or more than $5,000, or by imprisonment, with or without hard labor, not less than six months nor more than six years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The persons indicted in Mississippi, it is alleged, are guilty of conspiracy and preventing the peaceful gathering of republicans in public assemblages for the purpose of exercising the rights guaranteed by the section quoted, and it is charged that in several instances republican candidates for electors and members of Congress were prohibited from addressing the people pursuant to appointments made. Indictments already ound are against residents chiefly of the districts in which Mr. Lynch, the present member of Congress, and Judge W. W. Chilsom were the republican candidates, and the evidence elioited will doubtless be used by them in the contests which, it is understood, they have inaugurated.

Marshal Lake expressed it to the Attorney General as his opinion that, with a free and fair election, Mississippi would have cast her electoral vote for Hayes and Wheeler by at least 25,000 majority. In his opinion the unprecedented so-called democratic gains in Mississippi were made apparent by intolerance, social ostracism, intimida-tion, fraud and violence. He does not believe that the reported democratic majority of about 57,000 is anything like a fair expression of the will of the people of that State.

The latest move to solve the Presidential problem, is to get up an organization favoring the abolition of the Presidency altogether. A meeting for that purpose was called in Washington City last week.

Grant Refuses to Recognize the Kellogg Government-The President's Reply to Kellogg's Petition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—It will be remembered that last week the Louisiana Republican Legislature passed a resolu-tion asking for military protection against apprehended Democratic violence. This resolution was telegraphed to the President and laid before the Cabinet last Tuesday, when it was decided proper that no action should be taken upon it. But since that time Gov. Kellogg, actuated by a like fear, telegraphed to the President to the same effect, and desiring the recognition of the Republican Governor and Legislature, as two inaugurations would take place on Monday in New Orleans; that of Packard, Republican, and of Nichols, Demoerat, by their respective parties. The President having prepared a reply to Kellogg's telegram called an extraordinary session of the Cabinet to-day, at which, in order to inform the members of his proceedings in the premises and secure harmonious action, the reply was unanimously approved, and this afternon forwarded to Gov. Kellogg, and the substance of it, given by the President himself to Mr. Gob ight, is as fol-

"There will be two inaugurations of Governors to-morrow unless one of them is prevented. I do not, however, propose to interfere with them. I have nothing before me to justify action in the way of recognizing either Governor and therefore cannot do so, particularly as a committee of each House of Congress is now engaged in investigating all the facts of the late elections, including the contests of the two Governors, and the two Legislatures, both claiming to be legally elected. Under these cir cumstances for me to recognize one or the other would be hardly justifiable and I have so informed Governor Kel-

Petition From Prominent Business Men of Cincinnati in Regard to the Presidential Count-Grant's Answer to Kellogg Approved-The Return of the Florida Committee-No Minority Report-The Hunt After

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 .- In the Senate Mr. Sherman presented a petition of prominent business men and citizens of Cincinnati, members of both political parties, asking an amicable settlement of the Presidential contest. He spoke of the high standing of the petitioners, and said their opinions were entitled to great weight. He felt sure the general tone of the petitioners for a peaceful and orderly count of the electoral vote would be approved by every Senator.

Mr. Thurman said he entirely concurred in the remarks of his colleague as to the standing of the petitioners, and commended their petition to the Senate. The petition was referred to the special committee of seven Senators appointed to consider the Presidential question.

On motion of Mr. Edmunds, that con mittee was authorized to hold sessions during the session of the Senate. The action of the Cabinet yesterday meets quite general approval. The Florida committee have returned. There will be no minority report on the State election. The minority regarding the Presidential electors, if any report is made, will show that there were mutual intimidations-the negroes intimidating their own race in negro districts and blacks, in other districts deterred from voting the Republican ticket from fear of losing employment.

The judiciary committee of the House took no action regarding telegraphic disputes. The committee on privileges and elections are still after the $8000 supposed to be sent to the Oregon electors without result.

People are flocking to Ford's Opera House to attend the Democratic massmeeting which is about to organize. House.-Unimportant.

The Powers Getting Their Backs Up

-- An Ultimatum to be Laid Down. CONSTANTINOPLE, Sunday, Jan. 8 .-Clear and well defined European governments have instructed their representatives in the conference to reject Midhat Pasha's constitution and to present on Monday what is really the European ultimatum. The powers are very deter-mined and undoubtedly mean to try to force the Porte to accept their proposals. The plenipotentiaries will give the Porte until Wednesday or Thursday for a final and direct answer. In the event of a refusal they have decided to withdraw from Constantinople. The Porte begins to show a disposition to yield, particularly in regard to some sort of an international commission which is the most important part of the scheme.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The various special despatches as to the probable attitude of the Porte at to-day's sitting of the conference are very conflicting.

A Pera special to the Daily Telegraph, dated Sunday, says the Porte is apparently still determined to make no turther concessions. The Marquis of Salisbury has already engaged a steamer to depart on the 16th inst. The same correspondent confirms the report that some sort of an ultimatum will be presented to the Porte to-day.

The Grounding of the Steamer Amerique--Unimportant and Uninteresting Details. Long Branch, Jan. 8.—The Amerique had a stormy passage. There were violent westerly gales all the way until very near our shore, when the weather thickened and winds changed to the east. She took a pilot 180 miles outside of Sandy Hook bar. The pilot sounded about 15 or 20 minutes before 2 o'clock A. M., and found 5 fathoms of water and the same kind of bottom as found in the channel leading into Sanday Hook, and he supposed they were in the right course for New York, but at 2 o'clock the steamer struck bottom with her bow, but so slightly that had not the wind been so heavy from the east she would have been backed again. Although so near the shore they could not see the land until after the ship struck. Sandy Hook lights were not seen at any time. The steamer now lies high and dry broadside on the beach. All passengers, except one who had a broken leg caused by a fall on the steamer during a gale, have been removed. The Amerique had on board one hundred thousand dollars in specie, which with baggage and passengers will go to New York this morning. Most powerful steam tugs with heavy anchors and all kinds of appliances will arrive to-day. The steamer will be got off if the weather continues mild with winds offshore. She now lies imbedded in sand 10 or 11 feet and lies perfectly easy and is un-doubtedly tight. No danger is anticipated unless an easterly storm should spring up. The cargo consists of miscellaneous articles, among which are many very valuable paintings consigned o different parties in New York and elsewhere. The cargo will probably have to be landed on the beach and shipped to New York via Sandy Hook by rail or steamer. The coast wrecking companies steamer "Relief" and two lighters, with Capt. Merritt, have just arrived. Capt. Merritt thinks the prospects of saving ship and cargo are favorable. Preparations are now being made to lay out heavy anchors, which it is hoped they will be able to do to-day. The bodies of three seamen, who were drowned in landing vesterday morning, were found at station No 1, about a mile south of the point of the Hook late last night and the coroner has been notified to hold an inquest. Among the passengers were 8 French nuns bound for Illinois, Most of the passengers are French emigrants going to the Western States principally

The Dual Government-Inauguration of Nichols and Packard -- Ine Ad dress of Governor Nichols.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 8.-Packard and Antonine were inaugurated at the State House. The oath was administered by Ludelin. No excitement.

By noon a large crowd had assembled at St. Petrick's Hall, entirely filling the building, and by 1 o'clock some five thousand people had assembled in the streets, Lafayette square and on the adbuildings At 1 o'clock Con Nichols left the City Hotel for the hall. where he was received with tremenduous cheers. Gen. Nichols appeared on the balcony at 1:10. when, after prayer, the oath of office was administered to Nichols and Wiltz by Judge Tezat, after which Goy. Nichols made the following address: Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives and Fellow-Citizens: In obedience to a call of my fellow citizens, as expressed through the ballot box by a majority of more than 8000 votes, I assume the duties of Governor of my native State under circumstances of marked difficulty, and at a period of very general distress. For nine years a few men, having no identification with the people of this State, either in feeling or interest, have shaped and controlled their destinies. The result of this unnatural condition of affairs has been that in spite of rich soil, genial climate and immense resources, we find the people to-day in wretchedness and poverty. The very gifts of the kind and beneficent Creator have served these men as an additional incentive to acts of oppression and wrong. Not satisfied with the injury they have inflicted, the authors of these calamities are again struggling to maintain their ascendency by fraud, and to establish over these people usupation more glaring and infamous than that which ends to-day its baneful existence. The people of this State are determined, and I am also determined that this effort shall be foiled, The rights and liberties of Louisiana must not be suffered to be destroyed. There may be grave difficulties in the present manner of dealing with the matter, but they will be overcome, and hereafter upon the duly and legally constituted authorities of the State will devolve the proper administration of its affairs. The material prosperity of Louisiana, and prosperity of her people, must be restored, and this can only be done by the truth and loyalty of the people, co-operating with honesty, fidelity, integrity and patriotism on the part of their representatives. Self must be sunk and general good alone serve as a guide of the civil and political action of each citizen. Laws operating equally upon the whole people, without distinction of race. class, color or condition, must alone be found on the statute books, and these laws should be thoroughly, fairly and impartially executed. In this way confidence and hope will prevail and this State will speedily become a home of happiness and peace for all her children;

for the weak as well as strong; for the poor as well as rich. The first object of all governments is to secure peace, plenty and prosperity, and to give the largest possible opportunity for development to individual citizens. His interest should be its constant aim and citizens should recognize and feel the government only through its beneficent and revivifying influence. How nearly the governments erected in this unfortunate State in the last nine years have been based upon, or have realized these ideas may best be seen in the picture of miserv which is reflected on all sides. How nearly the government at the head of which I have the honor to be will realize them can only be determined when that government shall have been put to the test, but I can assure you that they are the principles by which my conduct shall be guided. As Chief Magistrate of this commonwealth I shall devote every energy to the great work of restoration and to securing an efficient administration of public affairs with the least possible cost to those on whom the burdens of State rest. Honesty and capacity will be required as an absolute condition to appointment and every avenue by which the people can be injured will be carefully guarded to the extent of the legal power of the Executive. It shall be a great object in my administration to promote kindness, sympathy, confidence and justice be-tween the two races that inhabit the State, and who, with a common interest should co-operate to secure common good. In fine, fellow-citizens, I shall invoke the assistance of Almighty God and earnestly and conscientiously endeavor to do my duty.

Levy Luckey, formerly private secretary to Grant, is nominated as secretary of Utah. Confirmation: Steele as collector of the second Alabama district. The Star says: "The committee of the House which has been investigating the recent election in Florida returned here this evening. The committee will not hold a meeting for a few days. It is said that Representative Wood, one of the committee, will unite in a report with the Democrats that the Tilden and Hendricks electors honestly carried the State. Mr. Dunnell, the other Republican member had his pocket-book stolen while in the State, and is therefore of election went there are thieves in Flor-

Mr. R. T. Merrick presided at the Democratic mass meeting. W. W. Corcoran was among the forty Vice Presidents.

F. S. Winslow, clerk in the cash room of the Treasury, was arrested as implicated in the recent robbery of a package for a Chicago bank.

Charles Dieunon testified that he had placed $8,000 to the credit of Ladd and Buse, Salem, Oregon, on the 6th of September; had paid drafts from them, one payable to the order of A. E. Cronin; knows nothing beyond mere business transaction: will produce books to show to whose order the money was paid. Parker and Klippel, Cronin's electors, have arrived and will be examed to-morrow.

Mass-Meeting of the Tax-Payers-They Sustain the Hampton Government in All Particulars.

COLUMBIA, Jan, 8 .- A mass-meeting of the tax-payers was held in this county to-day. There was a large attendance. Resolutions were unanimously adopted recognizing Hampton as Governor, Simpson, Lieutenant Governor, and only such county officers appointed by them, and to cheerfully pay 25 per cent of last year's tax levy.

The May-Bennett Scandal. WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—It is barely possible that May and Bennett fought in Maryland or Virginia to-day. They have eluded all trace.

Inauguration of Blue Jeans. Indianapolis, Jan. 8.—Gov. Williams was inaugurated. In his inaugural address he made no allusion to national polities.

Disease Grows Apace, Like an ill wind, and cannot be mastered too early. What is a trifling attack of sickness to-day may, if unattended to, become a serious case in a week. Small ailments should be nidped in the bud before they blossom into full blown maladies. If this advice were attended to, many v heavy bill for medical attendance to, many v heavy bill for medical attendance might be avoided. When the liver is disordered, the stomach foul, the bowels obstructed, or the nerves disturbed, 'Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a few doses of which will restore healthy action and put the system in perfect order. It is a wise precaution to keep this incomparable preventive in the house, since it checks, with unrivalled promptitude, disorders which breed others far more dangerous, and in their latest developments are themselves often fatal.

For children, convalescents, and involids of weak constitutions, the use of Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator will be found invaluable.
